

I elect to pay for the content I want to hear on my radio and the NAB has absolutly no right to dictate what I can or cannot listen to when I purchase a service. I would hate to have to get the ACLU involved but I'm sure they would love to fight this one in court.